Libya Becomes World's Newest Nation

Freedom is part of the fabric of peace, and last year saw important progress towards independence by Non-Self Governing territories. Independence came to Libya last December, the first nation to achieve sovereignty through direct action by the United Nations. Above (center) is the Amir of Cyrenaica (King Edris the First), who proclaimed the independence of the former Italian colony on 24 December 1951, one week ahead of the U.N. Assembly's schedule.

Win Three Out of Four Prizes

Vulcan Ladies' Rinks Win Prizes At Champion

Vulcan lady curlers took most of the prizes at the Ladies' bonspiel held at Champion last week. Four local rinks competed and, in the two events, took first and second prizes in one and second prize in the other.

First prize in the first event was taken by the rink skipped by Irma Middleton. Other members of the rink were Thelma Haverly, Adeline Seaman and Terry Gee.

Second prize in the first event was taken by the Rea rink with Mabel Rea (skip), Donna Armstrong, Ina Ohler and Margaret Hanna.

Second prize in the second event was taken by the Gail Walker rink. The members of the rink were Gladys Buehler, Frances Kehr and Shirley Walker.

The fourth Vulcan rink competing was composed of Ethel Banks (skip), Hanna Matlock, Margaret Murray and Velma Shaw. Although finishing out of the prizes, they also made a very good showing.

The Vulcan ladies' curling club has fifteen rinks active this season and is now making plans for the annual ladies' bonspiel to be held here the first of February.

Wardens for the ensuing year are: Charles Ottewill, vicar's warden, and Claude Brodick, people's warden. Norman Scotney was named secretary-treasurer.

Plans for the improvement of the church property were made and a new heating unit and the addition of a bell tower were among the items discussed.

Election of a bishop for this Anglican Diocese will take place on Feb. 20, and the lay delegates from here will be the wardens.

At the regular scheduled league game at Pincher Creek Tuesday evening of this week the Vulcans defeated Pincher Creek by a 10-6 score.

The regular meeting of the Scout Movement Group Committee was held in the L.O.O.F. Hall on Wednesday, Jan. 9. President Norman Scotney conducted the meeting.

Minutes were read by Jim Shortt and leaders reports showed that while meetings were not held during the holiday season interest remained high.

There are 45 Cubs meeting in two groups, roughly comprising town and country boys. The Brownies will hold a party this month, to which the Cubs will be invited, and the Scouts and Guides are already looking forward to summer camp.

The financial reports showed that the Cub apple day realized the sum of $80.00 and the Scout Christmas tree sale netted approximately $145.00. Congratulations and thanks are extended by the committee to Art Scott for conducting such an efficient campaign.

One disappointing feature of the reports was that the Scout Hall Fund shows a current deficit of about $50.00, which will have to be made up from general funds. There is much work still to be done on the hall before it can be used for meetings and further plans for raising money must be made if this project is to be completed in the near future.

The next meeting of the committee is planned for the first week in February.

The first film which was shown was on the book of Ruth in the Old Testament. It was the age old love story of Ruth the Moabitess and Boaz the Hebrew. The service was well attended in spite of the fact that no previous announcement had been made of it.

The young people themselves take part in the service. In the first Saturday night meeting, two weeks ago, Miss Betty Hansell sang a solo, Miss Ellen Rutberg read the scripture of the evening, and Eddie Robertson and Wayne Cuthforth took the offering which was used to pay the rental on the film.

The Youth Crusade, which has met on Sunday nights during the early fall and winter, began sponsoring films of Christian interest on January 5th. Such films will be presented every second Saturday night for the rest of the winter and spring months. Although they are sponsored by the Crusade, the community is welcome.

Champion Voters Give Approval To Water System

Approval of the Village of Champion water project, by-law was given by an overwhelming majority of ratepayers on Jan 8 when the count showed 87 votes for the by-law and 12 votes against it. There were six spoiled ballots. Harry E. Smith was returning officer.

On Jan. 7 a public meeting was held in the community hall with Ed Davis, engineer of Calgary, as guest speaker. Many small problems regarding the project were cleared up at the meeting and Dr. Ball of the Foothills Health Unit showed films dealing with the benefits to be gained from installation of a water system.

Actual work on the project will commence as soon as possible in the spring.

Ladies' Night At Hockey Game

Thursday's (tonight's) hockey game promises to be the game of the season, when the Vulcan Intermediates meet the R.C.A.F. team from Claresholm in a Foothills League fixture. The two teams previously played to a 7 to 7 tie at Claresholm in a game which featured plenty of fast action and nine teamwork and those who saw the game are most anxious to see the return match. The visitors arranged for two buses from Claresholm to Vulcan right after their first game and latest word from the R.C.A.F. indicates that further transportation will be necessary to meet the demands of fans at that point.

A new innovation will also be featured locally at the game to-night, in the form of a "Ladies Night." All ladies accompanied by escorts will be admitted free of charge. It is expected that this will bring out a large number of the fairer sex. Even the players are enthusiastic about the idea, most of them taking the attitude that the increased volume of feminine cheering from the sidelines will spur them on to even greater efforts. A record crowd is anticipated for this event. Game time has been changed to start at 8:00 p.m. sharp.

To wind up a big night, a dance has also been arranged in the L.O. O.F. hall. Music will be provided by the Wheat Kings orchestra and proceeds of the dance will go towards supporting the popular local intermediate hockey club.

At the regular scheduled league game at Pincher Creek Tuesday evening of this week the Vulcans defeated Pincher Creek by a 10-6 score.

Win Grand Aggregate and H. R. Event

Wolfe Rink Takes Top Honors at Foothills 'Spiel

The Wolfe rink from Vulcan took top honors at the annual Foothills curling bonspiel, held in High River last week, winning the Grand Aggregate and the High River Event.

The Vulcan Trophy, emblematic of the Grand Aggregate win, is now on display at Wolfe's Hardware. Individual prizes accompanying it were electric mantel clocks. The High River Cup, also won by the Wolfe aggregation, was accompanied by four Hudson's Bay blanket coats as the individual prizes.

Another top prize-winner was the C. J. Robinson rink, which won first prize in the Consolation Event. Members of this rink were C. J. Robinson (skip), Jim Clark, Jim Jensen and Gale Atkinson. Their prizes were four table and chair bridge sets.

Winner of third prize in the Nanton Event was the Spaeth rink with Howard Spaeth (skip), Roy Fulton, Lawrence Haga and Arnold Lloyd. Their prizes were table lamps.

Two other rinks were entered in the big bonspiel. A good showing was put up by the Graham rink before it was eliminated from the prizes. Members of this rink were Glen Graham (skip), Amund Hyslop, Brian Todd and Bobby Haga.

Fifth Vulcan rink in the 'spiel was skipped by Ross Walker, with Mike Miller, Bob Middleton and Art Hansen.

Missionary Class Names President

Mrs. M. Boese and Miss C. Kinehart were hostesses for the January meeting of the Keystone Missionary Class of the Church of Christ. Hymns were sung and a very interesting talk given by Mr. Neland Dodson, the Associate Minister of the Church. A financial report showed that $101.10 had been given to Missions during the year 1951.

Carried over from a previous meeting was the election of a President for 1952. Mrs. Donald Smith was elected with Mrs. J. Deans elected as Vice-President.

It was decided to have members of the Class save all their old Christmas cards to be sent to Edna Hunt, Missionary in India, for distribution amongst the natives. At the close of the meeting a lovely lunch was served for which a hearty vote of thanks was given.

Badly Hurt In Accident at Armada

Glen Root, young Lomond man, was seriously injured Tuesday night while helping pull a truck out of the ditch near Armada. A second truck was being used and reports reaching Vulcan indicate that in some manner the young man was crushed between the two vehicles. He is believed to have suffered a fractured skull and is now in the Vulcan hospital. Dr. E. M. Gee is the attending physician.

Macleod Goalie Hard To Beat

The most thrilling hockey game seen here in many a moon was the game on the local ice last Thursday evening when Macleod defeated the local intermediates by a score of 4 to 3, in a Foothills Hockey League feature.

Featuring plenty of fast action and a good brand of hockey right from the opening bell, Sullivan registered the first tally for Macleod, closely followed by a goal by Gorbous on a pass from Walker, the first period ending 1-1.

Halfway in the second period Vulcan took a 2-1 lead when Gorbous registered his second tally on a pass from Marshall in a neat bit of play. Macleod tied the score again with less than a minute to go when Ken Wright scored on a pass from H. Bourassa and W. Butler on a break-away while Vulcan was making a vain attempt to score on Fred Grier in the Macleod net.

The final period saw Macleod score twice in the first three minutes. From then on, Vulcan managed to keep the puck in the Macleod defending zone most of the time. Mitchell scored at 14:05 on a pass from Buehler and LaRoche in a nice bit of teamwork, but despite a veritable rain of rubber at the Macleod net, could not tie the score. In the last five minutes, Vulcan put five forwards on the ice and with a minute to go, even pulled the goal-keeper and used six forwards, all to no avail.

Outstanding feature of the game was the brilliant net-minding of Fred Grier for Macleod. It is estimated that Vulcan had the puck in Macleod's defending zone about three-quarters of the game and had innumerable shots on goal from every angle and position but could not penetrate his masterful defense.

A fairly good crowd was in attendance despite cold weather. Referees were: C. E. Hays of Macleod and H. LaRoche of Vulcan.

Line-ups: Macleod—Fred Grier, G. Simpson, R. O'Sullivan, J. Heal, W. Hamilton, C. Elmer, K. Ullrich, B. Butler, L. Bourassa, F. K. Lylock, W. Parker, H. Bourassa, J. Jenkins and D. Frumchak.

Vulcan—D. Larkins, C. Budd, B. Dann, R. Marshall, David Mitchell, G. Gorbous, H. Boutiland, Don Mitchell, J. LaRoche, M. Kehr, H. Monsinger, J. Pruden, J. Hunter, R. Buchler and Pat Walker.

Four minor penalties were handed out to Macleod and three to Vulcan, a clean brand of hockey being displayed throughout and no players were injured.

At the Milo bonspiel, the Bee Banks rink took second prize in the consolation event. Other members of the rink were Stan Seales, George Fulton and Alvin Jacobson.

The County System

Urging the council of the M.D. of Lacombe to apply for introduction of the county system in that area as soon as possible, the Lacombe Globe expresses concern that areas adjacent to Lacombe may adopt the county system and, in the resulting adjustment of territory, certain portions of Lacombe M.D. may be sliced off.

The Globe also likes the idea of having the people's representative who spend the money charged with the responsibility of raising that money. "The elected council being responsible to the people conforms with our conception of true democracy," says the Globe's editor.

The County of Vulcan has now been established for a full year and, generally speaking, this system of local government seems to have met with the approval of the farm population of the area, who are the people directly concerned.

There have, of course, been minor difficulties and misunderstandings, but these have been fewer than expected in view of the controversy attending introduction of the county system. Fears that education would suffer under the county setup have proven groundless; in fact, educational facilities have been or will be improved, almost without exception, throughout the county. Areas that were added to the former M.D. of Vulcan to form the county have noted an improvement in roadwork and snow-plowing service and farmers in these districts are, in many cases, paying less taxes than they formerly did.

The first annual ratepayers meeting, to be held in a few weeks time, will give an opportunity to thresh out any remaining difficulties or misunderstandings and to present a complete review of the year's operations.

Civil Defence Controller

The County of Vulcan and the Town of Vulcan plan to co-operate in appointing one civil defence controller who will serve both the town and the rural areas. The idea is excellent; but some difficulty may be encountered in securing the services of a man able to devote the required amount of time to the job.

The plan is to pay the appointee's expenses while he is attending a Civil Defence course at Edmonton. The knowledge gained at the Edmonton course would have to be passed on to others and he would also be largely responsible for setting up a civil defence organization in this area and co-ordinating the efforts of town and country.

The general public has a vague idea of why a civil defence program is deemed necessary, but greater publicity and education is needed before the average man-in-the-street sees the necessity of devoting some of his time to the furtherance of such a program locally.

A recent Civil Defence bulletin sets forth the whys and wherefores of civil defence in concise form, as follows:

"What is civil defence? It is a way of saving lives and property, of protecting you and your family should war strike Canada. It is a way of helping to keep you going, and to keep production going, in spite of atomic, biological or chemical attacks. Civil defence is your defence.

Why should we prepare? Because, in the event of war, there is a strong possibility that Canadian cities, and even smaller centres, would be attacked with atomic bombs. As long as this possibility exists, the sensible thing is to prepare to meet it effectively. Civil defence is a form of insurance against a disaster which may or may not come.

Who is needed? Everybody. Self-help and mutual help are the responsibilities of each and every citizen. At least 250,000 Canadians should receive civil defence training immediately. Everyone requires intensive education in self-protection.

When will we be needed? Right now. Your own backyard may be tomorrow's front line. Today the planes of any possible enemy country can reach every major city in Canada. The hour may not strike this year, next year or ten years from now. But it can strike tomorrow . . . and we must be ready."

Vulcan maintained its reputation as a good curling town when five local rinks participated in the annual Foothills bonspiel at High River last week and won the grand aggregate plus two out of the five events. And, the same week, four local rinks participated in the Milo bonspiel and the ladies were well represented at the Champion ladies' spiel and brought home three out of the four prizes.

Sprinkling For Baptism

Another question which is often asked is: "Why do churches of Christ not practice sprinkling for baptism?" A concise answer would be that sprinkling, at best, is only a substitute for baptism, and since the scriptures do not authorize substitutes, the forgiveness of sins, if there is any, does not arise from God's promised mercy.

The word "baptism" says Martin Luther, "is called in Greek, BAPTISMOS; and in Latin, MERSIO (immersion), that is, when anything is wholly dipped in water which covers it." In his Feb. 21, 1736 JOURNAL, John Wesley states: "Mary Welch was baptized according to the custom of the first church, and the rule of the church of England, by immersion." John Calvin states with clarity in chapter 15, paragraph 19 of his INSTITUTES: "It is certain that immersion was the practice of the ancient church."

The following facts stand out. Every Greek dictionary and Lexicon define the word used by Christ and his apostles (Baptismos) as "To dip" or "To Immerse." There is no exception to this. Every translation of the word into every language until the 17th century used the word in its own language which was equivalent to the English word "immerse" or "dip." This too has no exception. Recognized scholars of every church admit freely, as they do above, that immersion was the practice and teaching of the early church under apostolic leadership.

The first historical account of pouring or sprinkling, called a fusion, was performed upon Novatus in the year 250 A.D. He was expected to die, but upon his recovery he refused to be baptized and was denied further fellowship with the church. Not until the year 1311 was it received on a par with baptism, and then, when it was so authorized at the Council of Ravenna by the Roman Catholic church.

From these historical and literary facts it becomes clear that affusion and baptism are not one and the same thing; that affusion is only a substitute for baptism; that as a substitute it finds its authority and precedent in human tradition and not the Bible, which leaves, therefore, the promise of the forgiveness of sins based upon human authority and not divine declaration.

To be faithful to the Bible and honest to people churches of Christ must reject substitutes and baptize every convert. We trust that this faithfulness meet with your approval.

Carmangay

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Oatts of Monticello, Kentucky, wish all their friends a bright and prosperous 1952. They are enjoying the best of health while staying at their old home during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hauser were Lethbridge visitors on Thursday.

Mrs. Martha Jensen wishes to thank all her friends for the lovely Christmas cards she received. As the number of cards was far past the hundred mark, she was unable to answer all.

Lethbridge visitors on Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McGinnis, and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Davies, Mrs. Rena Burns and Mrs. J. Gower.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Copeland and family and Mr. and Mrs. Striehorst all of Claresholm were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Roemmele.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Berlin of Claresholm were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Wynn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burke were visitors at Calgary and Cochrane this week.

Leonard Teskey of Trenton, Ont. is visiting at the home of his parents for an indefinite period.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lerieux (nee Lottie McKay) of Longview and Stanley McKay also of Longview were recent visitors at the D. H. Russell home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Atkins spent several days in Crossfield, Alta. where they were called owing to the death of his brother-in-law, Alfred Edlund. Mrs. Edlund is the former Mable Atkins of Carmangay west.

Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Miller were Lethbridge visitors on Thursday.

Richard England and children accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Halvor Hovde, motored to Creston for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Oatts and David returned on Wednesday from a three week's holiday spent at Monticello, Kentucky visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hood of Barons were Sunday guests at the Bright Robertson home.

Mrs. Don Bond is still a patient in the Lethbridge Hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

The Guild

The members of the Anglican Guild were entertained at a holiday party at the home of Mrs. M. Batycky on Thursday. During the business meeting a report was given on the recent bazaar, which netted the club a neat sum of $163. A report on the Christmas program given at the church was also given. Treats for 36 children were handed out and a delightful program was enjoyed.

Mrs. W. Knight, the president, gave a short talk on the work done by the people who live in isolated spots on the west coast and who are served by the boats of the Columbia coast mission.

Relief Society

Members of the Relief Society from Carmangay and Champion met in the LDS church in Champion on Tuesday with a fair turnout. The Theology Lesson was presented by Mrs. Rhoda Minty. Plans are being made for a banquet to be held in March.

Social Credit Group

Mrs. Sibley entertained seven members of the Social Credit Group in the dining room of the Grange Hotel on Thursday afternoon. As both the president and secretary-treasurer were absent a short business meeting was held, followed by a lunch. Mrs. A. Lund won the raffle. The next meeting on February 13 will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Lund.

Champion Bonspiel

Two ladies rinks from Carmangay took part in the Champion Ladies' Bonspiel on January 10 and 11. A most delightful time was had by all those who attended. The Champion ladies certainly treated them royally. The personnel of the rinks were Mrs. Sadie Robertson, Mrs. Flossie White, Mrs. Margaret Hubka and Mrs. Martha Nelson lost their games, but the other rink, Mrs. Mickey Moore, Mrs. Doreen Smith, Mrs. Connie Stettner and Mrs. Gladys McGinnis went out to the finals in the second event and defeated the Walker rink from Vulcan, bringing home lovely cups and saucers. We wish to thank the Champion ladies for the grand time had.

Women's Association

Mrs. Syd Thompson was hostess to 14 members of the Women's Association on Friday afternoon. The group decided to hold their next meeting in the Sunday school room and make it an open meeting to the public when Mrs. Dawson will speak on missions.

A committee of six directors were appointed to first discuss the work coming up during the year at their own meeting and then present their arrangements to the group as a whole for sanctioning. This will leave the monthly meetings more as social meetings. Names were drawn for their 1952 polyannas. There will be no more hostess prizes, the tea money will be placed in a missionary box. The afternoon closed with a delicious lunch served by the hostesses.

John Deere Show

The Community Hall was packed to capacity on Thursday afternoon, when the John Deere Co. with their agent Bright Robertson entertained the group to pictures and a lunch. Prizes were also drawn for and won by Mrs. I. Nelson and Johnnie Rosenkranz.

Home and School

On Tuesday evening members of the Carmangay Home and School group met at the local school with a fair attendance. A short business meeting was held, several resolutions were presented, to be sent to the department, and later brought up at the Home and School convention at Oids. A discussion on the location of the new school was held. The scholarship fund was also discussed and a committee appointed to investigate this further.

A social evening of contests was enjoyed following the business meeting and then a lunch enjoyed in the Home Ec. room.

The number of units under the Division of Illustration Stations, Canada Department of Agriculture is now 225, compared with 217 at the beginning of 1951. The increase is partly accounted for by new units in Newfoundland and on Vancouver Island, B.C.

Make Sure Your Seed Wheat Grows

You can't afford to take chances with untested seed grain this year. J. E. Birdsall, Supervisor of Crop Improvement, Alberta Department of Agriculture, says that if you already have grain in the bin, two things are necessary if you intend to seed some of it. First make sure that it's dry, then test for germination.

If the grain is dry a germination test will tell you what you want to know. If it's damp, the results of the germination test may lead you astray. Damp grain will not germinate well, so drying is essential before making the test. An important point here is that samples sent to the Plant Products Division at Calgary are tested after drying and results may not be representative of the damp grain still in the bin.

If your crop is still in the field, don't think that by taking a small sample from the unthreshed crop, drying and testing it, you will have an accurate measure of how it will grow. Much can happen before spring. Alternate wetting and drying or thawing and freezing may so injure the grain that it will be useless for seed.

Those who are considering grain for seed from crops still under the snow might be wise to look elsewhere. Don't leave it until the last minute though. Good seed may be hard to find towards spring. Make arrangements for your seed grain now.

THE FABULOUS WALDORF-ASTORIA

New York's Waldorf-Astoria has a fair claim to being the greatest of all hotels. Not only by cubic measurement does it exceed any other; it is a veritable city within a city. Halling the Waldorf in January Reader's Digest article condensed from Town and Country. Horace Sutton says: "Without stepping outside, a visitor can undergo minor surgery; eat a plover's egg or a ham sandwich; spend $66 on a single bottle of champagne; buy a complete wardrobe including a $14,000 blue mink coat; have a tooth extracted; step into a private railroad car; eat dinner in the same room with 1,999 people; or bump into a former King of England, the only living ex-President of the United States, or General Douglas MacArthur—all of whom live on the premises.

In any year the hotel will let its 2,000 rooms to 150,000 transient tenants. Last July the register was signed by 11,295 Americans (from every state except Wyoming) and by 913 patrons from Canada and 49 other countries. A Waldorf guest may dine on Norwegian ptarmigan ($12 for the bird), antelope from the far west or buffalo from Canada. Chickens can be had in 71 different ways, eggs in 33. But if you want plain old-fashioned cooking you can get it. These culinary accomplishments are part of the daily routine of 200 Waldorf cooks, each an artist in one type of food preparation.

Walters, as well as cooks, are specialists. Rene Black, boss of waiters, says a good one "must be spontaneous and have the right answer the patron who asks, 'Where do truffles come from?' or 'What music is the orchestra playing?'"

The Waldorf's police system—a chief, his assistant, ten detectives, 25 patrolmen, one roundsman and a clerk—is large enough to keep order in a small city. The chief and his men often receive midnight calls from guests who can't sleep in such a big place. Could a man come? "We sit and talk to them for a while," the chief says with a benevolent shrug.

Annual applications of a complete chemical fertilizer have given better results on pasture than fertilizers containing only one of the required elements in experiments on a number of Illustration Stations over an eight-year period in Prince Edward Island.

light acts on these leaves, the carbon dioxide of the air and the water and nutrients of the soil are combined to form plant food. The process depends on many factors but the actual leaf area is of the utmost importance. It is readily seen then, that if the leaf area, and hence the food manufacturing ability, is severely reduced by heavy use the plant will actually starve. This does "happen. With severe and continual cropping the amount of root growth is much reduced, reproduction by seed or by the various specialized stems and roots comes to a standstill, and the plant will eventually die.

On the other hand it appears if only forty to fifty per cent of the plant is utilized, leaving ample leaf surface for food manufacture, these ill effects will not occur. The roots will be vigorous and healthy and seed production will take place. A carry-over of this nature will also result in somewhat faster spring growth and earlier grazing, in better survival during drought or severe cold, and in a greater overall yield than is the case where plants are severely grazed.

Tuberculosis was dreaded for ages as the "White Plague" and was believed to be incurable. Increased knowledge of the disease has revealed that it can be cured if treatment is begun in time. Chest X-rays detect the disease before outward symptoms appear.

Moisture Efficiency In Crop Production

Field experiments conducted by the Soil Research Laboratory, Swift Current, Sask., reports J. J. Lehane, show that on the average 10.5 inches of water used, the 10.5 inches of water produced a 14 bushel crop of wheat. When there was less than 10.5 inches of water used, the yield dropped rapidly with a crop failure when only 5 or 6 inches of water were available. When the total water used was over 10.5 inches the yield increased approximately 5 bushels per acre for each extra inch. Crops generally show a high moisture efficiency, or ratio of crop produced to water used, during years of good moisture supply and a low efficiency when the moisture supply is low. But climatic factors such as humidity, temperature, wind velocity and distribution of rainfall also have an influence on the moisture efficiency of the crop.

The rate of use of moisture by a crop is low early in the season but increases rapidly as the crop starts to head and continues at a high rate until the ripening period. A lack of available moisture at any time, and particularly during a period of hot dry weather, will reduce the yield and lower the moisture efficiency even though the moisture supply has not been reduced to the wilting percentage. The reduction in yield is very high when the soil moisture is reduced to the wilting percentage during periods of hot dry weather.

In Southwestern Saskatchewan most of the reductions in yield and low moisture efficiency are caused by hot dry periods which may occur in late June, but more generally in July, says Mr. Lehane. A heavy crop will use one-third of an inch of water or more per day if it is available. As the average precipitation in the area concerned for May, June and July is only 6.3 inches it is evident that extra water is needed for crop production. The moisture stored in the soil at seeding time, which will average approximately 4 inches in good summerfallow gives the 10.5 inches required for a 14 bushel crop. Larger crops are the result of above average precipitation during the growing period.

Man has no control over the climatic factors which influence moisture efficiency but he can increase the amount of moisture stored in the soil at seeding time. By good cultural practices weed growth on fallow and in the crop can be reduced thus increasing the amount of moisture available for crop growth. The greater the amount of water available the higher the moisture efficiency of the crop.

GRASSLAND UTILIZATION

At the Staveland Grassland Substation studies are now being conducted to determine, among other things, the amount of carry-over required for best utilization of grass without damage to summer ranges. To this end pastures are being grazed at light to heavy rates and vegetative changes are being closely watched and recorded.

Emphasis in these studies is being placed on the grassland resource since the individual range plant is the basis of our range and pasture economy and, as such, should receive first consideration. The plant is the factory in which the raw materials from the soil and air are combined, to provide food for current growth and to lay up a reserve for future plant growth or for reproduction.

The green leaves are responsible for food manufacture. When sun-
